THE GOLDEN EGG GOOSE CHASE

Issue 3 Easter 2017

Spring 2017 has sprung and the golden Goose's eggs are in many baskets, with breathtaking furniture commissions and lectures plus the launch of the new rug collection.

Ruffling feathers and making waves...

A fabulous day with The Financial Times, painting eggs and decorating Sycamore House for Easter. You can never have too many eggs, fluffy chicks and branches of blossom.

Hosting a 'Master class in Drawing' with GP&J Baker for London Design Week 17. There is so much to learn about HB pencils. Standing room only....

The fantastic team at The Rug Company Boston hosted a book signing, lecture and dinner to launch the latest collection.

Very comfy lot they are!

The Rug Company Chicago team chose the magnificent Driehaus Museum for the launch. Congratulations to Carson & Rosie for hosting an evening to remember.

5

A 'Brilliantly British' event with the British Consulate in New York, the perfect opportunity to catch up with Chesney's NY.

It was an honour to host the first of a series of 'Designer Dinners' with Sally Storey of Cullen Lighting and our new business manager, Amelia Hobson. An evening with fellow designers...another excuse to visit Covent Garden flower market.

Who could resist a red velvet jacket to match the red curtains and the red carpet at the BAFTA's? Not a winner this year, but remain hopeful.

OK. I own up... I ate my body weight in sweets and hope you will do the same this Easter. Enjoy... the diet can start tomorrow.

Keep up with the Goose Chase...
