

GOSLING

The GOOSE CHASE

Issue 8 Christmas 2018

Merry Christmas and a happy, healthy & hearty new year from Tim and the Gosling team.

Счастливого Рождества! Тим Гослинг

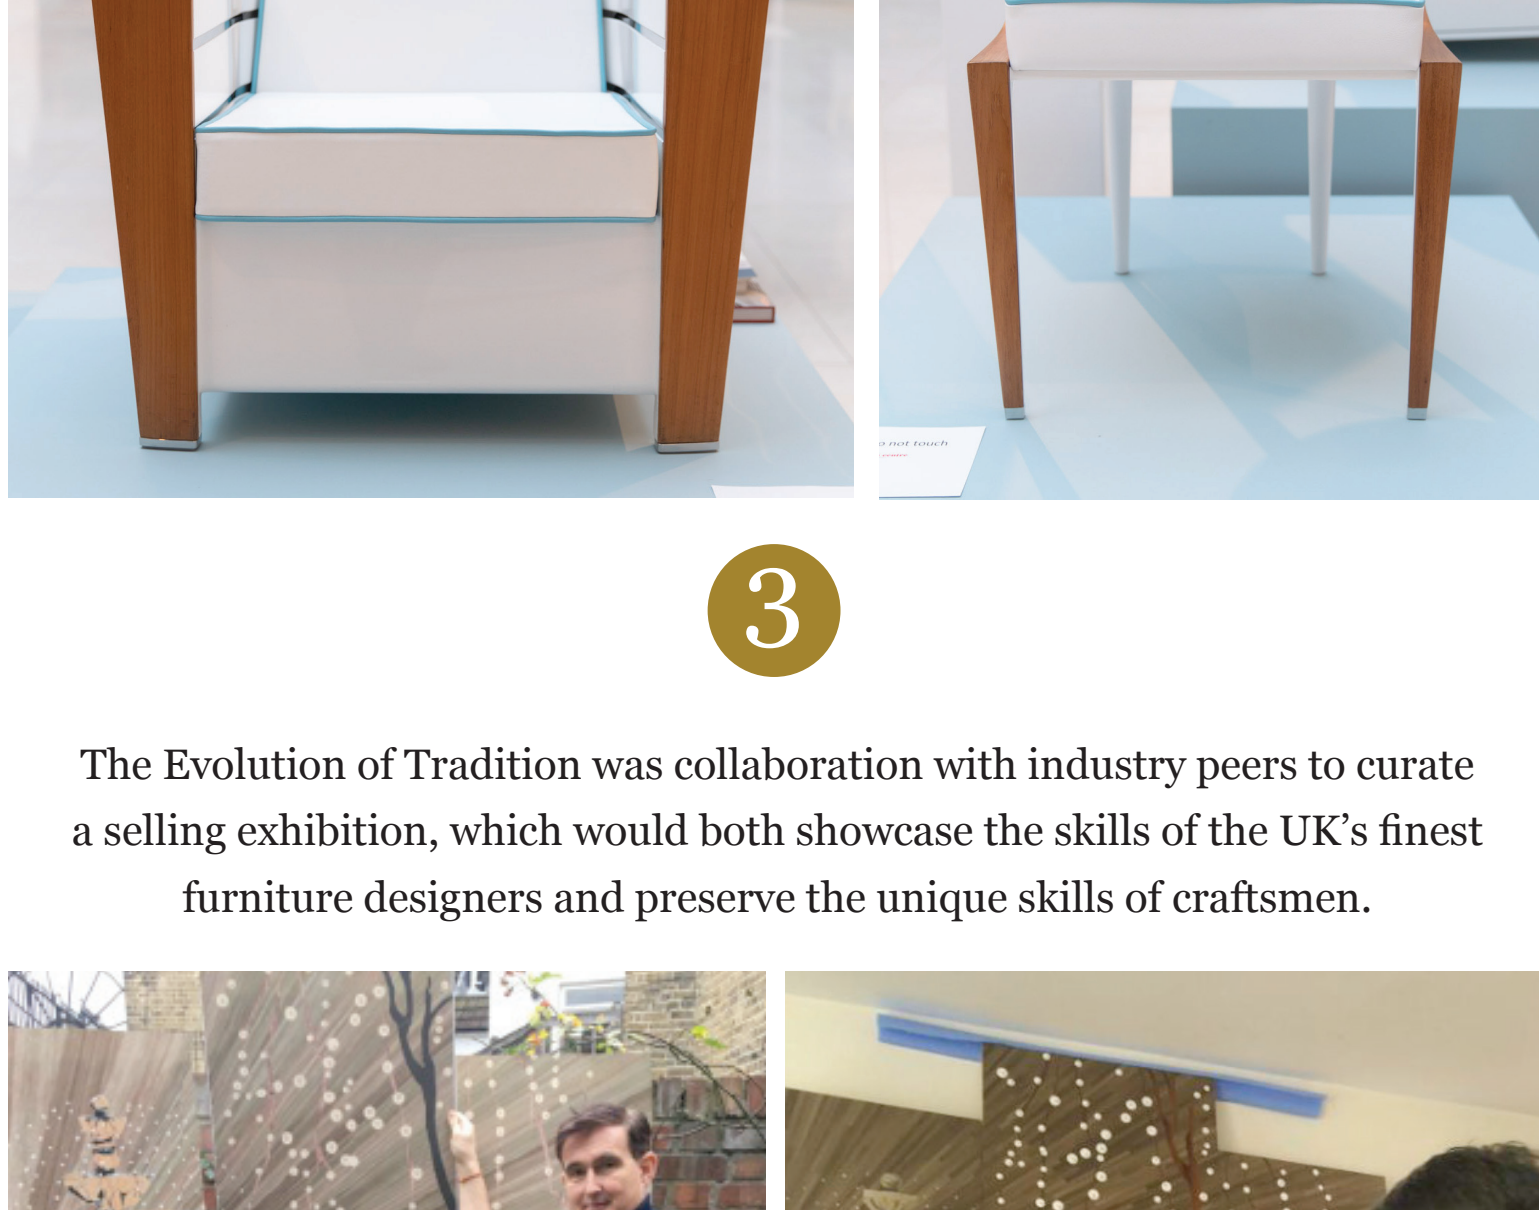

1

Tim Gosling is not going to let the Grinch steal Christmas. The Rug Company showroom provides the perfect backdrop for his Christmas tree, beautifully dressed with baubles and lights from around the world.

2

The finest super yachts from across the globe gather at the Monaco yacht show. As a judge for the Boat International Design & Innovation Awards, Tim is lucky enough to see them all and squeeze in a drinks party with the Red Arrows flight team. What a fantastic source of design inspiration.

3

The Evolution of Tradition was collaboration with industry peers to curate a selling exhibition, which would both showcase the skills of the UK's finest furniture designers and preserve the unique skills of craftsmen.

4

The Gosling 'Unique de Paravant', is a three panel screen using many different skills and disciplines. A technically challenging piece with wood and mother of pearl inlaid in the straw marquetry and 'hand painted' by the brilliant Robert E Wells.

In the 18th century the extravagant George, Prince of Wales shared Tim's passion for the love of the orient by decorating the Brighton Pavilion with hand-pointed Chinese wallpapers, furniture and objects. It was a great pleasure for Tim to share this passion for chinoiserie during Asia Week at The Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour.

6

An extraordinary velvet sofa for a palace in Istanbul, created by Anouska Hempel with remarkable side tables topped with engraved brass, known as engine turning. There are only 2 craftsmen in the UK able to do this intricate work.

7

Tim received an extremely warm welcome to Moscow from his friends at LegeAlto and The Rug Company Russia. Never one to resist a stage, he was also delighted to share his design secrets with designers and students at the Details Design School.
