“The collection is inspired by my two favourite periods, Art Deco and Regency and embodies the design language of neo classical architect, Sir John Soane and 1930s France. It is remarkable the culture and style from the 1830s and 1930s both express the same pared back language, working in such harmony and it is this unique design aesthetic which influences much of my work.”

The images were shot in Soane’s remarkable country house, Pitzhanger Manor, designed in 1800-1804, the perfect location for showcasing this pure union of design styles.
